Subject: RE: L.A. Business This Week: Chamber drives legislative wins

Hi Laura,

It is really hard to know how the funds will be deployed and what impact they will have in LA or downtown. I think overall it sounds positive and was one of the promises made with the passage of Prop 47. There has also been discussions at the county level regarding AB 109 (realignment) and how those savings can be used.

Hope this is somewhat helpful?

Thanks, Marie

Marie,

Hope you can help since you are much more up-to-speed than I am on all things policy! This looks important to me, but not sure how much it will affect DTLA day-to-day or what the latest is on it. Thanks, as always for your help and insight!
